

BREAKING DOWN THE WALLS: CREATING A COMMUNITY OF BROTHERS

A MEN'S WEEKEND DESIGNED TO BUILD AUTHENTIC COMMUNITY.

WHAT IS UNIQUE ABOUT THIS MEN'S RETREAT?

This weekend focuses on the men who attend not the speaker. It is intentionally designed to facilitate authenticity that we might "walk in the light" and have genuine fellowship with one another. Throughout the weekend there are short teachings, large and small group experiences, and personal times for reflection. Symbols and visual elements are used to help anchor the message in the hearts of the men. Rooted in scripture the weekend endeavors to take the biblical truths from the realm of concept to real life experience.

WHO WOULD THIS RETREAT BE APPROPRIATE FOR?

Any church that has as a goal to:

- Take a step toward creating authentic, honest, and open community as brothers in Christ.
- Inspire men to live more fully out of who they are as Christian men, husbands, fathers and friends.
- Help men to identify how they put up walls between themselves, God and others.
- Model for men how to come before God and others to experience freedom from these walls.

"I would recommend "Breaking Down the Walls" to other men's ministries who are serious about breaking down walls and living life to the full. Many of our retreats stay on the surface and don't dig down deep. This one forces you to continuously "peel back the layers of the onion" and look deep into your soul." Chris Platt, Missions and Ministry Pastor, Crestwood Baptist Church, Louisville, Kentucky

"This might be the most significant retreat a pastor can bring his men to. The weekend is rooted in solid Biblical foundations and the facilitators create a safe environment for men to expose their deepest wounds and find healing from the only true source- The Cross!"-- Pastor Gene Binder, Cornerstone Church of Boulder Valley, Boulder, CO
